

E-Man's Rules for UMY

2020-2021

1. Be honest and true to yourself.
2. Respect people of all beliefs, faiths, lifestyles, classes, gender/sexual identities, and of all interests and abilities. Everyone should feel welcome!
3. No illegal activities, substances, or weapons of any sort. Don't puff no stuff cause it'll be rough.
4. Refrain from foul language, gossip, and inappropriate comedy.
5. Keep your phones away in the Youth Chapel, during activities, and whenever it takes away from having a positive UMY experience.
6. No see-through clothing, no under garments showing, and keep your clothing practical.
7. Stay in the area you're supposed to.
8. Report any issues or concerns, whether they are physical, mental, emotional, or personal.

Last August, 2019, a team of UMY Seniors and the Youth Director sat down to discuss and develop a set of rules for the UMY year in order to make UMY a safe and positive place to be. Everyone who participates in UMY must agree to abide by these rules. If you choose to break these rules, a youth leader will talk with you and you will be asked to change that behavior. Depending on the seriousness of the breaking of a rule, a team of leaders may meet to discuss the issue to decide if any disciplinary action is still needed and what it would be. If conduct codes are broken while out of town and are serious enough for the youth to be sent home, the parents or guardians are responsible for the transportation.
