Scholarship Committee Guidelines

The scholarship program will be reviewed and approved annually by the scholarship committee.

Committee Members

The committee will consist of, at minimum:

- One member of the Joyce Edwards Family;
- One outside community member;
- One member of Kennewick First United Methodist Church Education Commission. It is the Committee's sole responsibility to select the Scholarship recipient.

Applicant Eligibility

To be eligible to apply for the Scholarship, the applicant must:

- Be a high school senior attending KFUMC;
- Have firm plans to attend a 2- or 4-year college, university, technical, or trade school;
- Submit two Letters of Recommendation, one of which is offered by a non-family community member.
- Submit application typed in 12-point font, with additional paper attached as needed.

Selection Procedure

To maintain confidentiality and to ensure fair and anonymous scholarship selection, applications will be numbered, with names separated from the applications. The master list with the names and assigned numbers should not for any reason be given to the scholarship committee. All student names, addresses, and other forms of identification will be blacked out.

Scholarship applications and eligibility guidelines will be available to the public on the KFUMC website and at the KFUMC church office.

Selection Process

Each member of the Scholarship Committee will review each application. Committee members will each rate each application using a 5-point scale in regard to the following criteria:

- Grammar
- Content
- Involvement
- Letters of Recommendation

Following independent rating of each application, the committee will convene to tally a cumulative score for each application. The applicant with the greatest number of points will receive first consideration for Scholarship award.
